

Pennsylvania Lumber Museum

History Camp - 2024

Looking for a unique experience for your child this summer? The Pennsylvania Lumber Museum is excited to present its hands-on History Camp on August 2 & 3. Children ages 10-18 will be able to spend two full-days immersing themselves in the rough and tumble lifestyle of a 19-century woodhick. On day one, campers will try their hand at activities like using a crosscut saw, rolling a log, peeling bark, and throwing axes. They'll play games like horseshoes, seed spitting, and model log raft racing. On the second day, participants will demonstrate their new-found skills at the Cherry Springs S.P. Woodsmen Show.

The program will be administered by the staff and volunteers of the PA Lumber Museum. Pre-registration is required for participation. Please call (814-435-2652) or email palumbermuseum@gmail.com to register for this event.

Scholarships covering the full admission cost are available for a limited number of campers. Interested campers must submit a 200-250 word essay about "Why I want to go to History Camp," to be judged by the museum Events Committee for content. Essays must be submitted by June 29, 2024, to palumbermuseum@gmail.com or mailed to the PA Lumber Museum.
